JUST CHURCH

Catholic Social Teaching, Synodality, and Women
Phyllis Zagano

Just Church engages the reader in the synodal pathway to a “Just Church” that can and should reflect its social teaching. An important measure of justice is an ecclesiology open to participation by others beyond celibate clerics, especially in consideration of competing Catholic ecclesial bodies and methods of membership.

No other contemporary Catholic voice speaks so eloquently about the place of women in the Church or the new methods of membership, especially break-away groups and the burgeoning metaverse, and no other work addresses these questions.
